a step ahead of the rest

These words express how we feel about Rod Cavedon. You have worked hard for us to improve the computer program at North Attleboro High School. Along the way you gave your time, going step by step, to make us better students and prepare us for our future. Therefore, in appreciation for all your advice and help over the past four years, we, the Class of 1985, dedicate the Northern Light to you, Mr. Rod Cavedon.

a step ahead of the rest

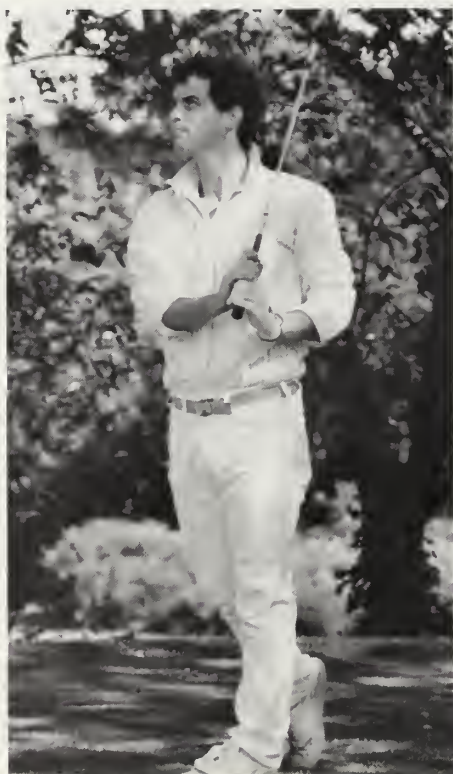

The past four years brought growth and change for all of us. We are not the children who walked nervously through the lobby door as freshmen.

a step ahead of the rest

The journey was not an easy one, but our teachers, parents, guidance counselors and friends were always there to make the journey a little easier.

a step ahead of the rest

As we reflect upon the past four years, we remember the good times - pizza on Fridays, fire drills, art class, a winning track team - and the bad times - Room 321, in-school suspension, consumer ed, and speed bumps.

Honor Society wraps up another productive year

The Honor Society involved themselves in many school and community activities during the 1984-85 school year. In October a Candidate's Night was held for local, state and national candidates. The Honor Society sponsored this debate, open to the public as a forum, prior to the 1984 election. This event was televised on local access cable as well as state news channels in Massachusetts.

In December members set up gift wrapping booths at a local mall for the Children's Happiness Foundation, with all proceeds going to help the organization.

On February 13, 1985, the Honor Society held its annual Induction Banquet. In April a Teacher Appreciation Day was held on which a buffet luncheon was served to all teachers and administrators.

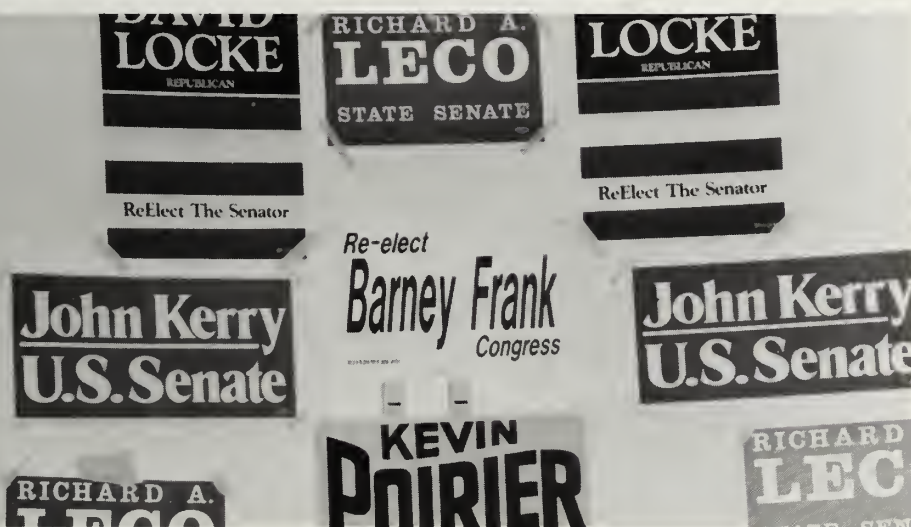

This year's Honor Society members ushered three parents' nights, played an important role for the Visiting Committee during the NEASC evaluation accreditation, and sold Rockeereer bumper-stickers at football and basketball games.

All in all it was a successful year for the Honor Society with Mrs. Carol Duhamel as advisor and under the leadership of Sean Poirier, president; Brendan Bannon, vice-president; Sue Joy, secretary; Kristie Raymond, treasurer and Katrin Anderson, publicity chairperson.

Academic Awards for many

The annual North Attleboro High School Awards Assembly took place on May 8, 1985. Opening comments were made by Sean Poirier, Honor Society president, and Mr. Whitty. Academic awards were presented by Mr. Whitty, Dr. Oliver for Humanities, Mr. Pickering for Business and Occupational Education, Mrs. Thibault for Latin and Mr. Louis Kelley for Physical Education.

Lynne Alix and Gail Watson were named valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, for the Class of 1985. David Lagasse received the Brown Book Award for excellence in English. Beth Pfefferle was honored with the Rensselaer Medal for excellence in Math and Science. Blake Udelson was commended for being a 1985 Merit Scholarship finalist, and Michael Violer for being chosen a Century III Leader Program winner. ner. Lori Karpinski was presented the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award. In the field of art, Brad Hill received the Boston Globe Gold Key Award. Steve Delfino received the Certificate of Merit for the New England Math League.

Sean Poirier introduced new members of the Honor Society. Class presidents read the names of students in their respective classes who earned highest honors for at least one term this year.

Model U.N.

Students solving world problems.

Our delegation this year went to the Sheraton at Copley Place, Boston, to represent the countries of Haiti and Democratic Kampuchea. We discussed very important issues of UNESCO: chemical weapons, Third World development and drug trade. While we spent most of our time solving these world problems, we did find time to tour Boston and develop some good relations with students from our neighbors in Canada and Mexico.

Timely issues debated

On April 11th and 12th, nine Hockomock schools participated in the Model Senate, held in the North Attleboro High School Media Center. Twelve NAHS delegates took part in this year's event. Also, a total of seven bills were sponsored by our school.

On the first day of committee meetings Lynne Alix chaired the Rules Committee. Six of the seven North Attleboro bills were passed out of the committee. The sponsors were Tom Grant, Steven Fuller, Lauren Mondell, Brendan Bannon, Stephen McAfee and David Lagasse. On the second day of Senate, David Lagasse's bill concerning Central American policy was debated and then badly defeated. Also debated was a bill by Stephen McAfee concerning women registering for the draft. This bill was passed by a majority of the body. Other subjects discussed included South African policy, drunk driving penalties and a rape awareness program.

The North Attleboro delegation participated actively and with strength. Several members spoke before the Senate and all did an excellent job. Mr. Vincent Baldasaro, advisor, expressed congratulations to the entire delegation for its effort in the Hockomock Model Senate.

Math League

They place first in Math

North Attleboro High School's best math students fared well in the New England Math League's six contests this year. The team finished third of nine schools in Bristol County.

Each contest consists of six problems, ranging in difficulty from algebra to calculus. The top five scorers for each contest comprise the team.

This year's group was led by seniors Steve Delfino, who had two perfect scores, Peggy Levin, Brendan Bannon, Gail Watson, Mike Violer and Blake Udelson. Juniors Heidi Hill, Chris Keyes, Ashish Parikh and sophomore Tom Grant rounded out the team.

First-of-its-kind Teacher's Challenge.

The 1984-85 College Bowl team ended its regular season with a 1-1 record. After a home loss to Foxboro, North Attleboro travelled to Foxboro to win 320-235.

The team then topped off the year in a first-of-its kind teachers' challenge. Despite the support of a somewhat biased audience, the student team was unable to overcome the advantages of age and experience. The final score: teachers 305, students 180. Wait 'til next year!

A step ahead of the rest

Under the leadership of co-editors Sakina Samma and Kim Lennax, the 1985 Northern Light began to take shape early in September. After much deliberation the theme, "A Step Ahead of the Rest", was decided upon. Besides the two senior co-editors, the editorial staff was comprised of juniors Lauren Mandel, David Lagasse, Jacelyn Lacasse, Heidi Hill, Tracey Ray, and sophomores Chuck Heap, Cathy Onayan, Pam DiFiore and Heidi Anderson.

The tradition of Thursday afternoon meetings continued under the supervision of advisor, Mrs. Jane Gallarra. Staff assignments were soon made. Then the anxieties of deadlines began to plague the editors.

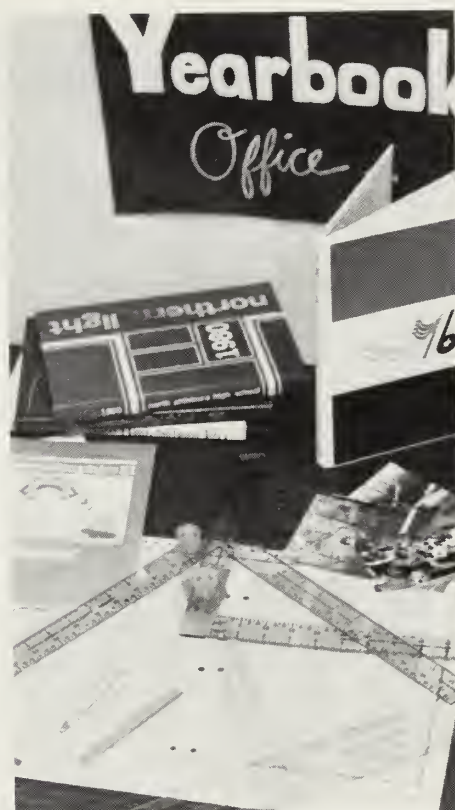

The 1985 yearbook was made possible by a lot of hard work and the abilities of the editors, the staff, Mrs. Gallarra and Jastens representative, Dan Smith.

Student Advisory Committee

Problem solving and new ideas

The Student Advisory Committee is a group of students who meet every other week with the principal to discuss any problems or new ideas concerning the school. This committee acts as a liaison between the students and the faculty. The 1984-85 members were Stephanie Arns, Heidi Hill, Cathy Onoyon, Richard Puccio and Andrea Spencer. This year the committee has succeeded in securing new soap dispensers for the lavatories. They also met with the cafeteria supervisor, Mrs. Leory, to smooth out some difficulties in the cafeteria. School committee meetings were also attended to observe how the school board works. Sue Joy and Lari Karpinski were elected as representatives for the South-eastern Massachusetts Regional SAC. They attended state-wide meetings and became more involved with the school system.

Another "smashing" year

With Mrs. Mary Clark as advisor and Jill Goudette as president the Student Council completed another successful year. Other officers included John Coreou, vice-president; Brian Lithwoy, secretary; Bruce Hall, treasurer; Korhy Brunell, corresponding secretary and Joe DiRenzo, sergeant-at-arms.

Activities included freshman orientation, a "smash-up car" at Homecoming, selling flowers at rallies, sponsoring a blood drive at which over 70 pints of blood were donated, the Sonto Fund at Christmas, maintaining the soda machine in the Teachers' Room, and sponsoring a most successful Father-Daughter dinner dance in January. On Valentine's Day about 1200 carnations were sold: red for love, white for an admirer and pink for a friend. A St. Patrick's Day dance was held in March.

Thinking ahead to 1985-86 the new officers are Korhy Brunell, president; Tino Pereiro, vice-president; Sue Billingskoff, secretary; Seon Buckley, treasurer, Kelly Achin, corresponding secretary and Kim Bobb, sergeant-at-arms.

Art Club

Big Apple on the top of the list again

It was fantastic year for the Art Club! The officers: Julie Grise, president; Therese Rollins, vice-president; Michelle Feid, secretary; and Laura Bury, treasurer worked exceptionally hard to build the most solvent treasury in the art club's history. With the addition of a small but functional parent's association, the art club was able to sell candy and design buttons for the annual junior/senior Powderpuff game. With strong club participation the members organized their always successful bake sales, and even landed a few jobs with local businesses to make signs for profit.

A successful year became even better when the club took its annual field trip to New York City . . . overnight . . . Milford Plaza . . . Times Square . . . the Empire State Building . . . museums (The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Holography and History) . . . Lincoln Center (backstage tour . . . Borysnekov in person!!!) . . . the Planetarium . . . and two plays (CATS and LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS - both a "10") . . . and of course, the City itself. It was unforgettable!!! We're already developing new fund raising ideas in order to finance next year's trip.

The club, advised by Miss Carolyn Wachta, ended the year with a party for all its members, celebrating a good year with good people and anticipating another great year.

Latin Club

"Hercules" viewed by J.C.L.

The North Attleboro High School Junior Classical League is a part of the Massachusetts JLC and the National JLC. The group had another successful year. Officers for 1984-85 were Lisa Cannelly, president; Chrissy Fowler, vice-president/secretary; and Lynne Alix, treasurer.

The annual bake sale, held just before Thanksgiving, was a great success. Members of the Latin Club saw the movie, "Hercules", in February. Some members went to Junior Classics Day at Tufts University on March 22, where they listened to speeches and participated in seminars.

Foreign Exchange Students on the spot

Early this year a foreign language assembly was held honoring our exchange students. The exchange students, Barbara Barawski, Olivier Lafont and Lena Marcher, spoke about their native lands and answered many questions about their lives, both at home and here in the USA. The assembly was most informative and enjoyable to all.

D.E.C.A.

A small but successful club

The Distributive Education Club for the 1984-85 school year was the smallest in North's history, but most successful in its endeavors. The club offers students the opportunity to get first hand business experience.

In November DECA sold yearbook ads to local businesses to raise money for the Northern Light. Also in November a yard sale was held as a fund raiser. The store was quite busy particularly during the Christmas season.

Mid-way through November DECA members traveled to Lancaster, Pennsylvania for NARCON (North Atlantic Regional Conference). In January a DECA function was held in Falmouth, Massachusetts. And in February DECA competed in Springfield, Massachusetts where a few trophies were won.

Officers during the year were presidents, Dawn Bayley, Kim McGee, Cheryl Bavin; vice-presidents, Kim McGee, Cheryl Bavin, Bonni Webb; secretaries, Gail Faulder, Cheryl Collins; treasurer, Michelle Edwards. The store manager was Bob Branagan with assistants, Bob DiFilippo and Gail Burns. Chief-of-Staff of yearbook ads was Bob DiFilippo.

Under the guidance of advisor, Mr. William Flannery, it was an interesting year and a unique experience.

Toronto was the highlight of the year

The NAHS Music Department enjoyed a very good year under the direction of Mr. Alyn Platt. Officers for the year included Lynne Alix, president; Kathy Miller, secretary; Jennifer Boltz, treasurer.

The bands attended competitions including the MICA state finals for concert band and several Festival of Music competitions held in Toronto, Canada. As a result the bands were awarded a number of second, third and fourth place trophies.

The marching band also participated in local parades and social events including the Christmas and Memorial Day parades, the Little League festival and winter and spring concerts. Before Christmas the band parent group again sponsored a successful pointsettia sale.

Jennifer Boltz led the marching band as drum major. At the annual awards banquet, held May 16, 1985, at the Knights of Columbus Hall in South Attleboro, she was presented with the prestigious John Philip Sousa Award. Also at the banquet, certificates for yearly participation were given and seven students received letter jackets. Plaques were awarded to seniors Lynne Alix, Jennifer Boltz, Berh Culp, Darrell Johnston and Berh McSwiggan.

Drama Club

Drama Club enjoys many trips to Trinity

Under the direction of Miss Judith Cobb, the Drama Club undertook another exciting year. The Club's officers were Jenny Baltz, president; Heidi Hill, vice-president; Heidi Anderson, secretary; Steven Fuller, treasurer and Laurie Housman, scribe.

During the year the Drama Club attended a theatre conference in Providence and made several trips to Trinity Repertory theatre to enjoy watching plays.

The annual Thespian induction was held on May 23. The new inductees, duly initiated, were Beverly Griffin, Diane Fong, Christine Burns, Lisa-Jo Megna, Rachel Farina, Mike Saulnier, Gwen Blodgett, Deb England and Jennifer Jordan.

The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

The Best Play oward was presented to "The Lost of Sherlock Holmes", and Best Technical went to Beverly Griffin. Distinguished Performance owards went to Beth Culp of "Chamber Music", and Peg Levin and Brion Soulnier of "Yellow Roses." Chris Abells of "The Lost of Sherlock Holmes" captured the Best Actor oward, and Lauren Mondell from "Chamber Music" won the Best Actress oward.

The Drama Club started off the year with the fall production of Rowan and Martin's "Laugh-in". This is the annual event in which the cast is comprised of students, parents and alumni. We were joined by parents, Mark Anderson and Kathy McKie. Ric Golembewski and John Strolworthy were returning alumni, participating in the show.

"Laugh-in" was presented November 16th and 17th, 1984. Both shows were a success and enjoyed by all.

Seniors gain experience

The physical education leaders are a group of senior athletes who choose to help the physical education teachers during the year. The leaders devote one period a day leading warm-up exercises, taking attendance and refereeing the games played. This is a good experience for anyone planning to further his education in physical education. The leaders also receive two credits per semester and have a choice of doing this activity for one semester or a full year.

Father-Daughter dance

"An evening with the pops."

The 11th annual Father-Daughter Dance was held on January 26, 1985 in the high school cafeteria. The evening, organized by the Student Council, consisted of a hot and cold buffet, catered by Markers and music by "Sight". Once again, this was a night of fun to remember by both fathers and daughters.

S.A.D.D.

"Eddie was here"

After a survey of student interest, a chapter of the national organization of S.A.D.D. (Students Against Drunk Driving) was introduced to NAHS with Mr. Dwight Esrey as advisor. Elected as the group's officers were Maria Pratano, president; Marcy Falcone, vice-president; Andrea Spencer, secretary; and Dawn Perkoski, treasurer. The objective of S.A.D.D. is to increase student awareness of the hazards of drunk driving.

In March, a related program, "Eddie was Here", was performed for all students of the junior and senior high schools during the school day. In the evening a final show was presented for all interested parents. A positive response was received from all ages.

A small but dedicated staff

The NORTH STAR found its home this past year in Room 239, located off the Media Center. Miss Carolyn Duckworth, advisor, worked with a small but dedicated staff. Editors Carolyn Duckworth and Steven Delfino, directed the group and established new areas in the paper including "Letters to the Editor", "The Senior Page", and "Feature Stories". Effort was made to include issues that were important to the school and community at large. For example, articles were written on the controversial Emerald Square Mall, the hazardous Landry Avenue exit from the high school and the controversy of weighted rank.

Again this year, Dr. Robert Olivier, head of the Humanities Department, wrote his column, "Random Sample", featuring quizzes for both students and parents that illustrated a unique comparison of our generation with his. Also articles were submitted by Mrs. Mary Ellen Samma's journalism classes and humorous cartoons from Mr. Frank Kelley, Jr.

The last issue saw a change in the "look" of the NORTH STAR, a bit smaller in size but overall, easier to read and handle. The staff gained some confidence and are in the process of drafting ideas for next year's issues . . . so keep your eye on the NORTH STAR.

Powderpuff

Seniors sharks soar to victory

The 1984 Powderpuff football game was played on October 20 at Community Field. The Senior Sharks, coached by Russell Lobonte, were victorious over the Junior Jets with a score of 10-6. Mike Strachan was coach of the Jets. Senior Shark, Liz McNeilly, was the only one to score on her team. The seniors also secured a safety. For the juniors, Morcy Falcone scored their six points.

Homecoming

Hornets defeated again

The annual Homecoming football game was held on November 3, 1984 at North Attleboro High School. The Rockers once again faced the Monsfield Hornets.

The parade prior to the game included floats presented by each class. The seniors built a cannon, the juniors a rocker, the sophomores captured first place with their Stop Light "to put a halt to Monsfield", and the freshmen presented a doomed Horner's nest.

At the Spirit Rally the day before, the Homecoming Queen and her court was announced. The Queen this year was Ann Marie Vaillancourt. Her court included senior members Lori Korpinski and Jill Goudette, juniors Chrissy Fowler and Kelly Magnan, sophomores Holly Bishop and Kelley Jordan, and freshmen Tonyo Everton and Kelley McPhee.

The Rockers concluded the day with a 28-0 victory over the Hornets.

A salute to champions

Best season ever

The 1984 Golf team, under the leadership of Captain Eric Boronski and Coach Art Nunes, had their best season ever. The team finished second in the league with a 12-1-1 record, falling only to Oliver Ames. In the Spring the team will go on to the state championships.

Runners roll on!

Both girls' and boys' cross country squads were unbeaten in dual meet competition this year.

The girls were led by junior, Liso Hjerpe and sophomores, Koren and Kristen Vialer. They were both dual meet and league champions by remaining unbeaten in 8 meets, repeating last year's performance. They also bested last year's record in the state meet by finishing fourth. The girls are looking forward to next season with the return of this year's first four finishers and hope to improve their chances in the States.

The boys were led by Captain Brendon Bonnon, as well as seniors, Mike Vialer and Greg McKinnon. The boys finished the season in second place with a 7-1 record and placed second in the championship meet. Unlike the girls the boys are losing most of their varsity runners. Coach Charlie Ayotte is looking to many promising underclassmen and feels that 1985 will be another successful season.

Field Hockey

Under new direction

Under the direction of Mrs. Raberra Girard, the Varsity Field Hackey team placed sixth in the Hackamack League with a record of 4-9-3.

Captains Jill Gaudette and Kim Gayran led the team through its first season with Mrs. Girard as varsity coach. Liz McNielly was unanimously elected the most outstanding goalie in the league. Marcy Falcane was high scorer, and Andrea Spencer was cited as excellent an defense. The team also participated in the first annual Field Hackey Jambaree winning both of their exhibirion games.

New coach, new tactics

The North Attleboro High School soccer team made a good showing this season. Finishing with a record of 3-9-2 they placed fifth in the league. This year's captains, Marc Shepard and Scott Blanchette, provided able leadership for the team. A new coach, Ben White, took over this year with high hopes for future seasons. Gerry Taillon was named most valuable player this year. Captains for next year will be Jason Rawles and Chris Keyes. With twelve varsity players returning the 1985-86 season promises to be the best ever.

Competitive season

The 1984 Football team, led by Head Coach Ray Beaupre and captains Mike Harris, Russ Labonte and Mike Plumb, finished the season with three wins, five losses and two ties. Although the record does not show it, North Attleboro played exciting, competitive football all season. The highlight of the year was the Homecoming victory over arch rival, Mansfield. The season ended with the annual Thanksgiving Day game against Attleboro. The Rocketeers, rated as the underdogs, were in control most of the game, only to lose 7-3 on a last minute touchdown pass by Attleboro. Tom Onoyon had an outstanding day, capturing the L.G. Balfour Offensive Player Trophy for his efforts.

All-Hockomock League honors were awarded to Duane Johnson and Ron Simoneau. Simoneau was also voted to the Boston Globe Division III All-Star Team and the Sun Chronicle All-Star Team. The Defensive Player and Unsung Hero awards, as voted by their teammates, went to Duane Johnson and Ron Simoneau, respectively. Brian Litway received the Coach's Award.

Record breaking season

The girls' basketball team, captained by senior Tara Reece and coached by Rick Smith, finished a championship season with a 17-2 record, 15-1 in the Hockomock League. This championship is a first for NAHS and broke school records for consecutive and single game wins.

The season was a positive one with young players quickly blossoming into a competent team unit. They defied the odds all season to reach the semifinal round of the Eastern Mass. Division 2 sectional tournament. The girls were in good company when they met their match in the semis, being eliminated by eventual state champion Westwood.

Sophomore Alyssa Gurauskas and junior Marcy Falcone were selected league all-stars in a polling of the respective coaches. Alyssa averaged 13 points and 14 rebounds per game, leading the team in shooting from the floor and at the free throw line. Marcy, a three-year starter, averaged 11 points, 5 assists and 4 steals per game. Heidi Deppisch averaged 10 points and 13 rebounds per game.

North also won the Holiday Tournament. Marcy, Alyssa and Heidi were selected for the Sun Chronicle's Girls' Basketball All-Stars. Coach Rick Smith joined the girls as Coach of the Year.

All but two members of the team will be returning next year. Marcy Falcone will captain strong, experienced players, so it would seem that only good things can happen during the 1985-86 season.

Boys' Basketball

A season of growth

The boys' Varsity Basketball team had its share of hardships this year. With only two returning lettermen from last year's team, North was an inexperienced, young team. Five of North's losses were by only four points or less.

As the season progressed North's experience strengthened the team and they began to win games. The turning point of the season came in a close game against the Hackensack League leading Oliver Ames Tigers. After that game NAHS put three back to back wins together. The highlight of the season was a sixteen point win over arch-rival Attleboro. North finished its 6-14 season with an exciting double overtime loss to Bishop Feehan High School.

North was led by three key players: Gus Johnson, Mike Reynolds and Captain Eric Billinghoff. Mike Reynolds was elected to the first team of the Sun Chronicle All-Stars.

At the annual break-up dinner, awards were given to Gus Johnson, Most Valuable Player; Eric Billinghoff, Unsung Hero, and Kevin Murphy, Best Defense.

Gymnastics

North leaps to third place

The 1984-85 Gymnastic team, captained by Kothy Clinton and Lori Korpinski, completed their season with six wins and four losses, taking third position in the league. The skill level increased noticeably and gained more depth with the new underclassmen.

In the Hockomock League Gymnastic meet, senior Kothy Clinton placed fifth on beam in the individual competition. In the All Around competition, sophomore Amy Legendre and junior Melisso Golembewski tied for fourth on vault, sixth and fifth on bars, fifth and sixth on beam and fifth and sixth, respectively, in All Around.

Team awards went to Amy for Most Contributing, Deonno Morceau for Most Improved and Melisso for the most accumulative points earned (289.35). Although no awards were given, Amy had the second highest point total (240.2) and Sherry Gordon contributed 169.7 points until her injury near the end of the season. Melisso was also a member of the Hockomock All-Star Team.

The future looks promising with all but two of this talented gymnastic team returning next year.

Winter Track

A great beginning

This is the first season that North Attleboro has competed in winter track since the 1980-81 season. The boys' team was led by Greg McKinnon and Mike Plumb with strong performances by senior runner Blake Udelsan and junior high jumper Doug Gazaille. The boys placed third in the Hockomock League and captured third in the league meet.

The girls' team, led by captains Beth Hanley and Debbie Schromm, placed first in the Hockomock League and also took first place in the league meet. With only two seniors leaving, they look strong for next year.

Coaches Charlie Ayotte and Dwight Esrey were very pleased with the teams' performances and are optimistic for many more successful seasons.

Hockey

All-stars for North

This year North's hockey team fought a constant uphill battle against five teams who made it to the state championships. Led by tri-captains Kyle Hording, Mike Morris and Greg Mercure, North escaped with a record of 4-15-1 to place fourth in the tough Hockomock League.

Sun Chronicle All-Star picks included Mike Morris, Dave Colleran and Kyle Hording. Morris also received All-Hockomock honors.

The season was highlighted by the rivalry which has developed over recent years between North and King Philip. Each of their three games resulted in frequent, fierce fisticuffs. However, each time, North came out on top!

Once again, Coach Morris can be highly commended for his excellent coaching job. For four years he has worked unselfishly to ensure the continuation of NAHS's hockey program.

Cheerleading

Red Rocketeer spirit

The 1984-85 cheerleading season proved to be a very exciting and successful one. Both the football and soccer squads attended summer camps to prepare themselves for their upcoming seasons. The football squad attended Westfield State College, while the soccer girls went to Brown University.

Mrs. Jeanette Barrista, the football cheerleading coach, and Mrs. Bersy Crateau, the soccer and basketball cheerleading coach, combined their talents to lead the girls in a great season of competition. The squads captured first place trophies at Emmanuel College, Chicopee High School, Franklin High, and placed in three other competitions.

Leading the football and competition squads were Lori Karpinski and Rhanda Burns. Kristie Raymond captained the soccer squad, while Rhanda Burns captained basketball.

All in all, the girls had a very interesting and fun-filled year.

Second consecutive championship for girls!

The NAHS Girls' Track team completed in 1985 what has to be considered its most successful season. Under the leadership of captains Debbie Schromm, Lori Karpinski and Beth Hanley, the team completed its second consecutive unbeaten dual-meet season. Coaches Steve Robertson and Dwight Estey have guided the girls to a 69-3-1 record and six league championships in seven years.

A landmark season for North, the girls captured their first state title by winning the Massachusetts State Class "C" Relay title, followed by the team winning its first South Shore Principals title. Six athletes joined the prestigious "Century Club" by scoring over 100 points in a single season. They were seniors Debbie Schromm and Tara Reece, juniors Beth Pfefferle, Melissa Golembewski, Karen Pearce and Kelly Magnan. Kelly also broke the 200 point plateau, scoring 204 points. These athletes were also elected to the Hockomock League All-Stars.

Kelly Magnan and Debbie Schromm won state Class "C" titles in their respective events at the New England Championship meet, held at Boston College. Kelly placed third in the discus and Tara Reece fourth in the javelin, improving her school record to 130 feet. Beth Pfefferle recorded a second place finish, the highest for a NAHS girl in the 400 meters at 57.7. Missy Golembewski and Karen Pearce represented North at the State Pentathlon Competition, placing fifth and seventh respectively. Missy established a new school record in the high jump at 5'5".

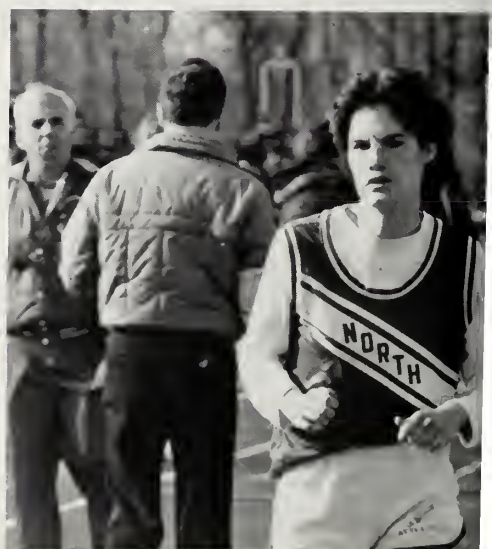

Captains for the 1986 are Kelly Magnan, Karen Pearce and Beth Pfefferle, who will lead the team into what could prove to be a very interesting year!

Good performance

Under the leadership of captains Mike Plumb, Jim Onayan and Greg McKinnon, the boys' track team posted a 3-5 record for the 1985 season. The team's record was not indicative of the way the boys performed. Two of the five losses were by one point only. Although overshadowed by the team's sub-par record two pleasant surprises emerged in the form of Mike McCarthy (100 long jump) and Chris Paradis (200). With Mike McCarthy and Chris Carnera as captains for 1986, Coach Charlie Ayarte and his assistant, Jim Tadd, look forward to continued success in the coming year.

Take me out to the ball game

At the start of the 1985 season North was looked upon to be a power in the Hockomock League. But due to many last inning losses North finished with a very disappointing seven win and thirteen loss season.

North's record was not indicative of the talent the team had. This year's team was led by four key players: senior co-captains Joe DiRenzo and Kent Johnson, and seniors Mike Harris and Eric Billingskoff.

The highlight of the season came in a thrilling victory over the defending state champions, the Stroughton High Black Knights. North's offense came alive and we won the game 9-4.

Three top players, Kent Johnson, Mike Harris and Andy Mochrie were rewarded for their fine showing by being chosen to play on the annual Hockomock League All-Star Team.

Softball

Young team does well

Once again, Coach Joanne Sizemore led the NAHS softball team through a fairly good season, finishing with 8 wins and 8 losses in the Hockomock League, 8 wins and 12 losses overall. The 1985 captains were Liz McNielly and Ann Marie Vaillancourt. The young team, whose starting lineup often consisted of three seniors, one junior, three sophomores and two freshmen, finished fourth in the Hockomock League. Sophomores Alyssa Gurauskas, Stephanie Cooper, Kristen Pickering and freshman Rachel Rauthier were all chosen to play in the All-Star game which was held in Mansfield.

At the closing banquet it was announced that Marcy Falcone was chosen Most Contributing and Stephanie Cooper was named as Most Valuable Player. Rachel Rauthier was unanimously elected to the All Hockomock Team. Looking ahead to 1986, Marcy Falcone will captain the team.

Girls' Tennis

Five wins highlight season

This year the NAHS Girls' Tennis team, coached by Marcia Carman and captained by Sue Joy, completed a respectable season with a record of 5 wins and 11 losses. The team, facing rough competition in the Hockomock League, rallied against many players with tournament experience.

Katrin Anderson won the most points for the team with her record of 10-6. Awards for Most Improved were presented at the closing banquet to Sue Farnell and Beth Iaconis. The team also voted Mrs. Joy Most Contributing, in appreciation for all her time and energy spent in support of the team's fundraising efforts.

With the three top singles players graduating, the team will have a completely new line-up next year. Debbie Feid will captain the 1986 girls' tennis team.

Boys' Tennis

High hopes for '86

The boys' tennis team, faced with a lack of players, ended this year's season winless. The team, coached by John Wood and captained by Jeff Redding, found itself overmarched and undermanned, in spite of some strong individual performances throughout the season. Jeff Brunelle, next year's captain and this year's winningest player, will lead the tennis team into its 1986 season with some new recruits and hopefully, a new formula to win.

Fisher-Kelley Banquet

Athletes honored

On May 20, 1985, the sixty-fourth annual Fisher-Kelley Banquet was held to honor athletes from the Class of 1985. Parents, administrators, coaches, faculty members and special guests assembled at the Elks Home in North Attleboro for dinner and the presentation of awards and plaques. The guest speaker was Douglas DiNardo, a 1971 graduate of NAHS, who lettered in basketball and was also head basketball coach at North, 1978-1981.

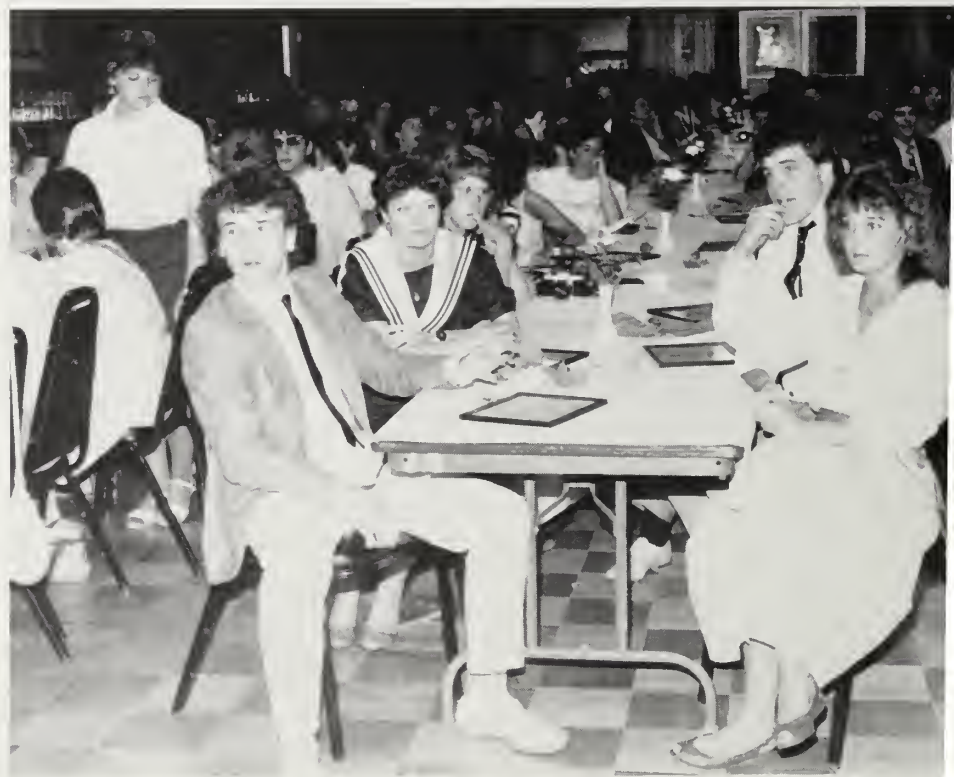

The Dr. Maurice L. Grant Award, presented to a senior of exceptional achievement in scholarship, athletics and citizenship, went to Lari Karpinski. Ronald Simaneau received the Thomas Bury Memorial Award.

Junior Prom

"Can't Fight This Feeling"

The King Philip Ballroom in Wrentham, Massachusetts was jumping with junior prom-goers on April 18, 1985. Guests began to arrive at 7:00 P.M., to mingle and have pictures taken. Soon after, a dinner of chicken cordon bleu was served. Then the tables were cleared to prepare for the coronation of the Queen and her court. These nine lucky girls, led by Queen Kelly Magnan, received the honor of dancing to the theme song, "Can't Fight This Feeling". Everyone then joined in and danced until midnight to the sounds of Rainbow. All received champagne glasses and beer mugs as mementos of a most unforgettable night.

The Class of 1986 was advised this year by Mrs. Catherine McCahill.

The class started the year off with a dance on October 13, 1984. Next, the Junior Jers challenged the Senior Sharks at the annual Powderpuff football game on October 20, 1984.

The class sold candy, donuts, soda and coffee at basketball games, making quite a profit from this.

The final event for the Class of 1986 was the memorable junior prom. It was held at the King Philip Ballroom in Wrentham on April 18, 1985.

Representing the junior class on the Student Council were Kathy Brune, Sean Buckley, Tina Pereira and Scott Bolton.

Freshmen

The Class of 1988 elected John Rijo, Laura Barrett and Tanya Everton as student council representatives.

We recovered from the first rally in time to win the "Spirit" award at the last two. We followed that with a car wash, at which we raised $160.00. At Homecoming we placed second in the float competition. Kelley McPhee and Tanya Everton represented the class in the Queen's court.

We adjusted to high school quickly, with the exception of a few incidents in the cafeteria, which were soon resolved.

All in all, it was a good year, and one in which we feel the freshman class was an important part of NAHS.

SENIORS

It all started in September 1981

Class of 1985, officers: Lori Karpinski, president; Stephanie Arns, vice-president; Ann Marie Vaillancourt, secretary; Kent Johnson, treasurer.

CLASS HISTORY

We began our first year of high school in the fall of 1981. We were all a little timid and scared upon entering North High. After a long search, Mr. Vira became our advisor for the next four years. Shawn Rioux was elected as our President, Stephanie Arns - Vice-President, Lori Karpinski - Secretary, and Greg Mercure - Treasurer. Our Student Council members were Jill Gaudette, John Croteau, and Brian Lithway. We were the first class to start building our treasury with class dues. We spent endless hours building our first so-called floor. Our theme was "We're going to knock the block off Attleboro." Elected to ride on the floor were Lori Karpinski and Stephanie Arns. We ended our freshman year with the freshman/sophomore social. The theme was "Still" and like our first year at North it was quite interesting.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

With a year behind us, we began our sophomore year under the leadership of Lori Karpinski - President, Stephanie Arns - Vice-President, Kristie Raymond - Secretary, and Jane Pollis - Treasurer. Our student council reps were Jill Gaudette, John Croteau and Brian Lithway. We once again collected dues and had a summer car wash. We voted not to have a Freshman/Sophomore Social but instead hosted an end of the year dance in May. Elected to ride our fourth place float were Stephanie Arns and Jill Gaudette.

JUNIOR YEAR

Our junior year came upon us quickly. Elected as the class officers were Lori Karpinski - President, Stephanie Arns - Vice-President, Debbie Gordon - Secretary and Kent Johnson - Treasurer. Our student council members were Brian Lithway, Joe DiRenzo and Bruce Hall. Jill Gaudette was elected as corresponding secretary and John Croreau - Sgt.-at-arms. Junior year activities consisted of a summer car wash and a spirit dance. We also ran the concession stand at the home basketball games to raise money. During the fall we participated in the annual Powderpuff Football Game. We fell to the Senior Sharks with a score of 16-8. Our float placed first this year with the theme "North is on the right track." Jill Gaudette and Stephanie Arns were elected to ride the float.

We spent the rest of the year planning the most important event of our junior year - the prom. The prom was held at Kirkbrae Country Club in Lincoln, Rhode Island on April 20th. The theme song was "Straight From the Heart." Stephanie Arns was elected as queen. The court members were Kim Gayton, Lori Karpinski, Robin Holmes, Jill Gaudette, Tina Fecreau, Debbie Gordon, Ann Marie Vaillancourt and Lynn

SENIOR YEAR

Our class officers elected this year were Lori Karpinski - President, Stephanie Arns - Vice-President, Ann Marie Vaillancourt - secretary and Kent Johnson - Treasurer. Jill Gaudette was elected as student council president, while John Croreau served as vice-president, Brian Lithway as secretary, Bruce Hall as treasurer and Joe DiRenzo - Sgt.-at-arms. Student Council members were Kim Gayton, Norm Bishop, and Lynn Waseleski. As seniors we placed third in the float competition. Ann Marie Vaillancourt was voted as Homecoming Queen and Lori Karpinski and Jill Gaudette were her court members. We defeated the Junior Jets in the annual Powderpuff Football Game with a score of 10-6. We sponsored a homecoming dance on November 3rd and a winter dance on January 12. The Senior Prom was held on February 21st at the Sheraton in Mansfield, The theme was "You're the Inspiration." The music was supplied by "Sight." Stephanie Arns was elected as Prom Queen and her court consisted of Kim Gayton, Lori Karpinski, Robin Holmes, Ann Marie Vaillancourt, Jill Gaudette, Tina Fecreau, Debbie Lamar and Lynn Waseleski.

We would like to give very special thanks to Mr. Vito for taking us on in our freshman year and we would also like to thank Mrs. Clark and Mrs. McCahill for their help during our senior year.

Senior Prom

Inspiration for the class of "85"

On Thursday, February 21st, the Class of 1985 held its Senior Prom at the Mansfield Sheraton Inn.

After having their pictures taken, in a romantic pool-side setting, the guests retired to an elegant ballroom for roast beef and the sounds of "Sight". The dancing began when Queen Stephanie Arns and her court started it, swaying to the song "You're the Inspiration" by Chicago, enhancing an evening the Class of "85" will never forget.

Pizza, softball, and good weather

On May 30, 1985, about 50 members of the Class of '85 assembled informally for the last time by attending the annual pizza party and softball game. A great deal of pizza and cans of soda were consumed. What was left went out to the softball field to sustain the seniors for the faculty/ student softball game. The weather was most cooperative this year. The faculty proceeded to massacre the seniors, a team of about 30 players. The faculty won by a sizable margin!

A night for goodbyes

On May 29, 1985, the seniors began the task of congratulating and saying goodbye to their classmates. The senior reception, sponsored by the Alumni Association, was held this year at the Mansfield Sheraton.

Following dinner, friends, relatives and faculty members greeted the seniors to offer their congratulations and best wishes for the future.

Dancing with music supplied by "Rainbow" topped off a nostalgic evening.

Class Day 1985

With parents and friends looking on the Class of 1985 held Class Day on Friday, May 31. Essays were read by Karrin Anderson, "Teaching and Learning"; Laurie Chabot, "Freedom to do Rather than Freedom From", and Lori Korpinski, "Reflections". A vocal selection, "Our Here on My Own", was sung by Jenny Boltz, Beth Culp and Linda Duckworth, accompanied by Mr. Platt.

For making the honor roll all four marking periods for four years, Mr. Whitty presented six seniors with the Principal's Award. They were Lynne Alix, Douglas Gonya, Kent Johnson, Diana Lewis, Camille Nelson, and Gail Warson. Mr. Pickering presented the President's Fitness Awards. Major Francis E. Faubert presented Michael Violet with his senate appointment. Lori Korpinski received the Crockett Award, which is given to the student who has been most contributing to the school and to the class. The co-editors of the Northern Light, Sakina Samma and Kim Lennox, announced that the 1985 yearbook is dedicated to Mr. Rod Cavedon.

Exchange students, Barbara Borowski and Lena Marcher spoke about their year at NAHS. A slide presentation was shown featuring important moments throughout four years for the Class of 1985. Concluding the program Peggy Levin sang the Class Ode, accompanied by Mike Saulnier on the piano and Ryan Smith on the saxophone.

A reception for all was held after Class Day activities in the cafeteria.

Graduation

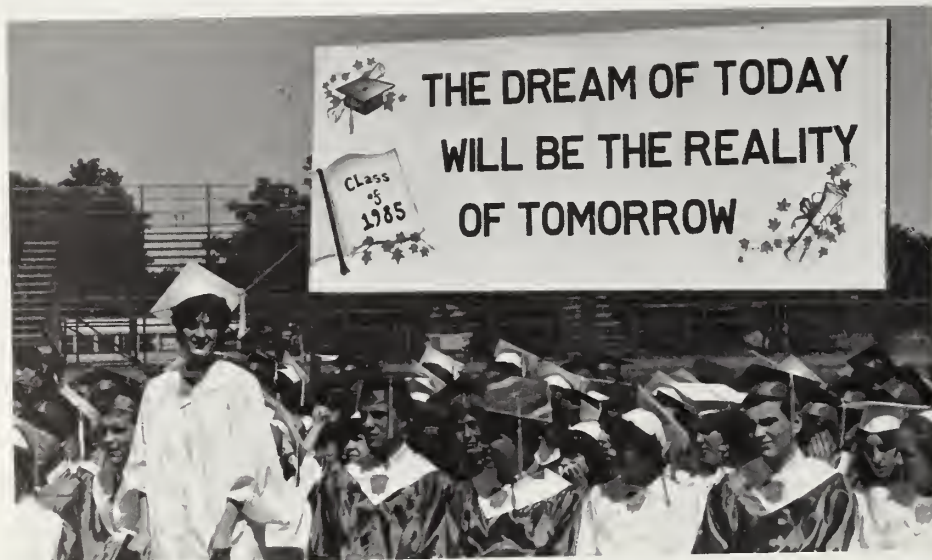

Sunday, June 2, 1985, Graduation Day, dawned clear and warm, allowing 230 NAHS seniors to graduate outdoors on the high school athletic field.

Lynne Alix, valedictorian, praised her class for being part of today's teenagers who have shown responsibility towards the crisis in Ethiopia. Gail Watson, salutatorian, criticized students, parents and the community for letting the educational system deteriorate. U.S. Representative Barney Frank, commencement speaker, advised everyone to take education more seriously and be more demanding in educating our young people for future technology.

Long awaited diplomas were handed out by the chairman of the School Committee. During the ceremony it was announced that $73,447. in scholarship monies were awarded to deserving students. The Athletic Cups, given for excellence in sportsmanship, leadership, athletic skill and scholarship, went to Tara Reece and Michael Harris.

The Class of 1985 will one day look back on its four years at North, but for now the graduates are looking to the future where "the dreams of today will be the reality of tomorrow."
